

1 1. On June 21, 2023, the parties participated in mediation with mediator
2 Rick Copeland. At the conclusion of the mediation, Mr. Copeland made a
3 mediator's proposal, which all parties accepted.

4 2. In light of the parties' acceptance of the mediator's proposal, the 5 parties have reached a conditional settlement that resolves this case in its entirety.
6 The proposed settlement is conditioned upon the approval by the relevant Los 7 Angeles County boards, including the Contract Cities Claims Board and Board of 8 Supervisors which is anticipated to take up to nine months.

9 3. The matter is working its way through the County's approval process
10 and is expected to be on the Contract Cities Claims Board agenda by March 2024.
11 The matter should be on the Board of Supervisors' agenda within 30 days after 12 approval by the Contract Cities Claims Board.

13 4. If the conditional settlement is approved, the plaintiffs will be filing a 14 petition for approval of the compromise of the claims of the minor plaintiffs. The 15 plaintiffs anticipate filing the minors' compromise within 45 days of the 16 settlement's approval by the Board of Supervisors.

17 5. The parties will file a further joint status report regarding the 18 settlement on March 15, 2024.
